RE: Louisiana Oilfield Anti-Indemnification Act (LSA-R.S. 9:2780)

If the Louisiana Oilfield Anti-Indemnification Act applies to your operations with our insured, we can provide a Marcel Exception endorsement. The Act, roughly interpreted prohibits the enforcement of the indemnity provisions of any oil and gas exploration or production-related contracts where LA State law would apply.

Under the Marcel Exception the insurance carrier(s) or its agent is required to invoice your company for premiums incurred to obtain an endorsement specifically naming your company as an additional insured under our general liability policy and in some cases, umbrella/excess policy. If you would like a quote to purchase the necessary endorsements under the applicable policies, please email the agency contact on this certificate.
